1. Introduction

In emerging areas to achieve development targets in an efficient and effective manner at a faster pace, Government Departments need capacity building by engaging various Individual Consultants. Necessary amendments have been made in Punjab PPRA Rules 2014 which enable Planning & Development Board (P&DB) to short-list/pre-qualify Individual Consultants on yearly basis. In accordance to the instant amendments in PPRA Rules, 2014, all departments of Government of the Punjab may issue Terms of Reference (ToR) directly (without advertisement) to the Individual Consultants shortlisted by P&D Board to hire services under certain terms and conditions mentioned in Sub-Rules 6-10 of Rule No. 16 of PPRA 2014.

This Prequalification Document (PQD) enlists the criteria for Individual Consultants to be shortlisted in below given area/sector for following categories as per Sub-Rules 6-10 of Rule No.16 of PPRA 2014.

- i. Legal, Techno-legal & Contract Management
 - a. Legal
 - b. *Techno-Legal and Contract Management

2. Objective

To provide consultancy on managing projects on equitable basis between the contracting parties commensurate with appropriate contracting strategy which ensures timely completion at right costs for desired quality and minimizes disputes in Techno-legal matters. Further to provide project specific services to achieve short-term gains and capacity building of stakeholders to meet long-term objectives.

A consultant is a recognized authority or specialist in a specific field, engaged by the Organization in an advisory or consultative capacity. The functions of a consultant are results-oriented and normally involve analysing problems, preparing documents, or writing reports on matters within their area of expertise.
